

Peace-Building through Teacher Training and Development ~ Learning with African Educators ~

UNESCO-IICBA in collaboration with CICE, Hiroshima University and Center for Advanced School Education and Evidence-based Research (CASEER), The University of Tokyo

STUDY-TOUR INTERACTIVE REPORTING SESSION with educators from Eritrea, Ethiopia, Kenya, Somalia, South Sudan and Uganda

As part of UNESCO-IICBA's Japan-supported project, Teacher Training and Development for Peace Building in the Horn of Africa and Surrounding Countries, a total of 18 secondary-school teachers, trainers and policy administrators will travel to Tokyo and Hiroshima, Japan to undergo training, visit relevant government departments, participate in discussions and attend lectures. At this reporting session, participants from the six participating countries will share what they have learned from Japan's approach to education and peace-building through teacher training and development.

Date: 9 August 2017
Time: 9:30am -11:30am
Venue: Ichijo Hall, Yayoi Campus,
The University of Tokyo

日時：2017年8月9日
時間：午前9時半～11時半
場所：東京大学弥生キャンパス一条ホール

Please RSVP from the ink right → 予約リンク → goo.gl/Wci2Kz

For more information, please contact:

Center for the Study of International Cooperation in Education (CICE), Hiroshima University
Email:tomomi@hiroshima-u.ac.jp Tel. 082-424-6247 (Tomomi Yamane)

